

Wingo keeps growing! We announced our new itinerary so we can all fly more!

After five months of successful operations –that included the launching of 2 new routes– we now increased our frequencies and improved our schedules to better serve our travelers' favorite destinations.

Bogota, May 3, 2017

Yes, people! We have made available our itineraries up to October! We know that you were eagerly waiting for this moment and, today, we are happy to announce new itineraries with enhanced frequencies and schedules, so that our travelers can fly well and more comfortably and make the best out of their stay. By expanding our offering, we want our passengers to enjoy their weekends and holidays more, and our business travelers to optimize their working time.

We have renewed our itineraries

Our new itineraries going from July 1 to October 28, 2017 are already available on our sales channels so you can plan your business trips or your vacations in your favorite destinations.

At Wingo, we're always chewing over the preferences of our travelers, that's why we have designed a new itinerary to best suit their tastes and travel needs.

The changes coming during this third quarter of the year are:

- Frequency increase to 7 flights per week in the following routes: Bogota- San Andres- Bogota, San Andres- Cartagena- San Andres y Bogota-Panama-Bogota.
- On the other hand, thanks to the great acceptance of the Bogota-Cartagena- Bogota, we've decided to DOUBLE our operation with more comfortable schedules, so our travelers can make the most out their trip by departing early in the morning and returning late at night, getting to know the Wingo side of Cartagena without haste. We will now be flying twice a day between Bogota and Cartagena!

- With these new itineraries we want Colombians from other cities to travel more to their favorite destinations, thus meeting the high demand of tourists departing from Cali and Medellin. Therefore, we have included one additional frequency in the following routes: Cali-Panama-Cali (from 2 to 3 flights per week) and Medellin-Panama-Medellin (from 4 to 5 flights per week).
- As if this wasn't enough, we have also enhanced the schedules of two of our business (and leisure) routes: Bogota-Caracas-Bogota will now depart from Bogota at 8:08 am and return from Caracas at 12:15 pm; and Bogota-Quito-Bogota will now depart from Bogota at 9:00 am and return from Quito at 11:30 am. Better schedules and less early rising for our travelers.

We are committed to our travelers. In March, we achieved an on-time performance index of 95% and a completion factor of 100% in our flights. These are great indicators that back our service flag.

Now, Colombians have more options to get to know the Wingo side of the region's best destinations. We want everyone to keep taking off with us!
